Ingenuity is the hallmark of a successful design narrative. Without it, there is no authenticity, there is no signature, no defining quality to the product. Ingenuity is the catalyst that implores the onlooker and or client to respond and commit to your brand and products. Don't be the same, be better! -Stacey Carlton AIFD EMC

TSFA returns to Regional Design Competitions in 2020, creating an opportunity for increased design recognition. A competition will be held in each of the 2020 State of the Art Events listed above. The six regional winners will go on to compete in 2021 for the chance to be named Texas Designer of the Year! Please read through the rules of this competition. Rules are located at tsfa.org/2020regionaldesigncompetition.
